

POINTY AND FLATTY: WHAT TWO CORNISH ALPS CAN TELL US ABOUT THE INTERACTION OF HUMAN IMAGINATION AND POST MINING LANDFORM.

Penny Dunstan, PhD Candidate, University of Newcastle.

JENNY STUART

Acknowledgements

- Greg Hancock, Kris Smith, Pete Whitbread- Abrut
- Friends of the University of Newcastle
- Rix's Creek mine and John Hindmarsh

Penny Dunstan.com